EKKO

AN EVENING SPACE FOR LGBTQIA+ PEOPLE EXPERIENCING HOMELESSNESS

EKKO is an anonymous space for anyone over 18 who identifies as LGBTQIA+ and is experiencing homelessness or does not have a place to call their own.

Here, you can get a meal, take a shower, have your clothes washed, meet others, or simply take a break. It's a space where you're welcome just as you are – there's no expectation for you to do anything in particular.

WE ARE OPEN ON TUESDAYS FROM 5-8 PM

AT Turesensgade 21, Copenhagen.

We are aware that as an LGBTQIA+ person experiencing homelessness, you may face additional challenges and be on high alert much of the time. This space is here to support you and make room for these feelings, while also fostering a sense of safety and community. For this reason, EKKO is a space that allows no discriminatory or hateful speech, threats, violent acts or substances.

If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to:
Yasmin (she/her) at tel. 5354 4882 or
Frey (they/them) at tel. 9292 0547.
